

Release of Nations in Transit 2007
Governance Crisis in Central Europe:
Is the Democratic Consensus Eroding?
Thursday 14, June, 2007, 10:00-11:30,
Council of Europe – European Youth Center, Zivatar u. 1-3. 1024

QUOTES ABOUT Nations in Transit (NIT)

“Nations in Transit is an indispensable source; very well researched and reliable.”

–Michael Emerson, Centre for European Policy Studies, Brussels

“Nations in Transit is a very, very important book. Anyone who works with nations in transition relies on it. We couldn’t do without Nations in Transit.” Michael Shafir, professor, Babes-Bolyai University, Cluj

“Nations in Transit is the only truly comprehensive annual study of the state of democracy in the post-Communist world. Its accurate analysis and wealth of information make it an essential resource for anyone who cares about freedom in Central and Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union.”

–Janos Kis, professor, Central European University, Budapest

“Nations in Transit is the definitive scorecard on the status of democracy in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union. It is a source of support and strength for agents of democratic change and political economic reformers.”

–Thomas A. Dine, former president, Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty, Prague

“Notre Europe uses Nations in Transit extensively in its research. It is a reliable source of information, effectively presented. It is one of our key references when assessing a country’s progress on the path towards democratization in Europe.”

–Stephen Boucher, Co-Secretary General, Notre-Europe, Paris

“Nations in Transit is an indispensable analytical tool and ‘a must’ for political scientists and analysts in the region, because it is objective, accurate, and un-biased.”

–Damir Grubisa, Institute for International Relations, Zagreb

“An essential tool for those concerned with the future of democratizing East Central Europe and the newly independent states of the Soviet Union...Comprehensive and reliable.”

–Zbigniew Brzezinski, Center for Strategic and International Studies, Washington

“Since its beginnings, Nations in Transit has not only been a balanced and comprehensive survey of the political situation in Central and Eastern European countries and the former Soviet Union, but it has also managed to shape political discourse in the region, and occasionally even provided a well-needed impetus for change.”

–Istvan Szent-Ivanyi, Hungarian Member of European Parliament, Brussels